Holiday Valley

Lots of snow, cold temperatures and no lift lines.....but we were really at Holiday Valley this second week of January 2010. 42 Fagowee racers braved the cold and had a great time remembering how to ski, race and drink with each other once more. (Not necessarily in that order.) Mike K. is in the running for the I Chucked Up award already for popping out of his bindings right out of the start gate in the GS on Saturday. During the slalom race Deb B received style points for helicoptering around a gate landing face down spread eagle with both skis off right in front of the crowd at vulture ridge. Quote of the weekend from Tom K: "When the student is ready, the poles will come to you." Chuck Mc and Andy S each received a strike one and Debbie Mc received a bump up into BVW. Congratulations!
